THE BELLS

An Eager Longing

"I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. For the creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed."

Romans 8:18-19

On September 11th it will be the 23rd anniversary of the terroristic attack on our country. Many people have asked, "How can a good and loving God allow terrorists to fly plans into buildings killing so many innocent people?" first, we live in a sinful fallen world in which sin and death reign. This world is Satan's dominion. What everyone in this world is longing for is heaven.

A place in which evil and death no longer exists. The problem is that there are so many people in this world who want heaven, but they don't want the God of all creation, the One true God. Sinful people chase after the false gods of this world. And many misquided pastors and preachers of today claim there are many paths to heaven, but there is only one way to heaven and that is Jesus Christ. You can't have heaven without God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and the only way to the Father is through the Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus said, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." (Jn 14:6)

What people don't realize is without Christ there is no way to heaven. For those who are not in Christ, this sinful fallen world is the closest they will ever get to heaven. And for everyone who is in Christ Jesus, this sinful fallen world is the closest they will ever get to hell. In Romans 8:18-19, Paul is making the point that all of creation is suffering and all of creation waits with eager anticipation for an end to all the pain and suffering of this world, which is what everyone wants. But as Christians, we know that it will happen when Christ returns on the Last Day. Everyone in Christ will receive eternal life in a perfect new heaven and earth, while those who are not in Christ will receive an eternal death in hell. Which brings us to the second part of the question about innocent people being killed.

No one is innocent. We are all sinners who deserve eternal death for our sins against God and our neighbors. It is only through Christ that our sins are removed, and we are counted as righteous. Jesus paid for the sins of the world, everyone's sin, on the cross. If you reject Christ and His sacrifice then you get to keep your sin, for which you will receive eternal death. But there is another part to this. Many people claim to know who Christ is, but they're not repentant, they don't ask God for forgiveness and so their sins are not removed, and they will be condemned to hell. If a person truly knows Christ, then they will want to come and worship Him, repent, ask for forgiveness of all of their sins and receive God's absolution, which is cemented in the reception of Christ's body and blood in the Lord's Supper. The Church is where heaven and earth meet before the throne of God. And the Lord's Supper is a foretaste of the Marriage Feast of the Lamb that we will enjoy with God in heaven, when Christ returns. This world is not our home and that's why we long for our real home in heaven with God. But the events on 9/11 should motivate us to proclaim the Gospel because there were many who died on 9/11 who didn't know Christ and they died with their sins, only to face an eternity worse than being attacked by terrorists. This is the real tragedy. Proclaiming the Gospel is so important because it's through proclamation of the Gospel that the Holy Spirit works to convert people and make them children of God and heirs to His heavenly kingdom.
